CAMPBELL CLEARED.

The Hopkinsville Lawyer Exonerated By Conference.

Restored To The Ministry By Unanimous Vote and Completely Vindicated.

Glasgow, Ky., Oct. 7.—One of the most important actions of the Methodist Conference to-day was the reinstatement of George F. Campbell, who, two years ago, was expelled from this ministry upon charges of immorality made chiefly by his wife against him. Mr. Campbell at the time protested his innocence and claimed that his wife was of unsound mind. Mrs. Campbell's father and other members of her family did not believe him guilty, and so expressed themselves. Since then Mrs. Campbell has been tried, found to be insane and sent to an asylum. Her mind is now restored and in a communication to this conference she declares the charges she made against her husband were unfounded, and says she has no recollection of what she said or of even having been before the committee, before which she appeared and testified. Mr. Campbell was reinstated by the unanimous vote of the conference, every member of which was convinced of his entire innocence. He has been practicing law, but will return soon to the ministry.

Mr. Campbell studied law and was admitted to the bar about 18 months ago in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell have been living together for several months happily reunited.

Henderson, Tuesday, October 17.
Madisonville, Wednesday, October 18.

The local campaign committee will probably have the speaking here at night, in order to secure the court house.

LITTLE RIVER ASSOCIATION.

Interesting and Profitable Session With Caldwell County Church.

The Little River Baptist Association met at Harmony church last week and held a session of three days. Rev. I. M. Wise, the moderator for 1898, was succeeded by Rev. I. N. Strother, of Cadiz. Rev. R. W. Morehead was re-elected clerk.

On the last day Rev. I. M. Wise introduced a resolution endorsing Dr. Kerfoot in his recent trouble with the Shelby Sentinel, but the lay members opposed it so vigorously that it was withdrawn and not put to a vote.

The next meeting will be at Rocky Ridge, the Wednesday following the first Sunday in August 1900.

Death of Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Kittie Johnson, widow of the late D. Lee Johnson, a member of the Hopkinsville bar, died at her home in this city, Sunday evening, after a lingering illness, aged about thirty years. She was a daughter of R. E. Wallpole, and leaves two little children. She was buried in Hopewell Cemetery yesterday morning.

Wm. F. Dew, of Canton, Trigg county, has filed a petition in bankruptcy at Paducah. Liabilities several hundred dollars.

BRYAN'S VISIT.

His Hopkinsville Speech Will Be at the I. C. Depot.

Will Talk From An Elevated Platform in the Freight Yards.

The coming of Col. Bryan next week to speak for Goebel and the Democratic ticket ought to convince the few misguided Democrats in Christian, as well as other counties, that they have carried their little joke far enough, if they are friends of W. J. Bryan.

Bryan recognizes the importance of coming to Goebel's aid, for a victory in Kentucky this year will fire the first gun for 1900. In spite of all reports to the contrary he will come to Kentucky next Monday and one of his speeches will be in this city, which will be the only speech he will make in the Second District. To come to Hopkinsville he will have to make a detour of 55 miles. He will leave the I. C. by a private car and after speaking will take another private car on the L. & N. and go to Nortonville, where his special train will be waiting for him. The entire list of his appointments is given below.

Seventeen speeches will be made, six on each of the first two days and five on the last day of the trip. Mr. Bryan will come into the State at Cairo, Ill., on the night of the 15th, and his first speech, a thirty-minute one, will be made at Bardwell, Carlisle county.

The special train will be in charge of Mr. Urey Woodson, National Committeeman, but just who will be aboard, in addition to Mr. Bryan, Senator Goebel and ex-Senator Blackburn, has not yet been determined. The number will be small. The towns through which the train will pass and where speeches will be made are as follows.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 16.

At Bardwell, 9 a. m.
At Mayfield, 10:15 a. m.
At Benton, 12 m.
At Hopkinsville, 2:30 p. m.
At Central City, 4:30 p. m.
At Leitchfield, 7 p. m.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 17.

At Frankfort, 9 a. m.
At Versailles, 10:40 a. m.
At Lexington, 11:50 a. m.
At Mt. Sterling, 2:15 p. m.
At Richmond, 4:15 p. m.
At Stanford, 6:30 p. m.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 18.

At Harrodsburg, 9 a. m.
At Shelbyville, 11 a. m.
At Louisville, 12:20 p. m.
At Sanders, 5 p. m.
At Lexington, 8 p. m.

The speaking in this city will be from an elevated platform, a few feet from the north end of the I. C.

passenger depot. The location will command a view of the freight yards, Water street, Ninth street and several adjacent yards into which people will be allowed to go. The railroad people will be asked to clear their sidings next to the river and this will give almost as much more room as the freight yard contains. Standing room can be made for at least 12,000 people. The platform will be a high one overlooking the vast assemblage and will be only large enough for the speakers and the press. Mr. Bryan will not speak more than one hour. Other speakers will precede and follow him. Senator Goebel has been asked to speak at one o'clock, ahead of Bryan, and others will be invited to speak after the Bryan special has departed. Mr. Bryan has never made a speech in Hopkinsville. In 1897 he made a brief talk at the L. & N. depot but the train was stopped in the wrong place and in the confusion few people were able to get into a position to hear him. This time there will be no hitch of this sort. Mr. Bryan will be taken to the stand upon his arrival and after speaking will be taken in a carriage to the L. & N. depot only four squares away. As this will take less than five minutes, there will be no waste of time. All of the time will be taken up by Mr. Bryan. There will be no introduction—he needs no introduction to the American people—and the chief duty of the reception committee will be to clear the way and see that there is not a moment's delay in getting from the train to the platform.
